Miss Rausch Heads Nest

Miss Katherine Rausch of the faculty of Albion (Mich.) College has become manager of the Falcon's Nest, student union building.

She also will teach classes in home economics.

At Albion Miss Rausch has taught home economics and has been personnel director of the dining room at Susanna Welsey Hall.

Earlier she was home economics instructor at Fayette (Ia.) High School and the University of Dubuque in Iowa.

Miss Rausch will live in No. 1 University Court with Miss Audrey Kenyon Wilder, dean of women, and Miss Charlotte Skene, instructor in speech.

Mrs. Mary Katzenbarger—"Mrs. K." to hundreds of students—quit after a year and a half as Nest manager to become head bookkeeper in the university laundry.

She and her 12-year-old son, Bob, have moved from the Nest to an apartment at 502 North Prospect Street.

"I appreciate greatly the loyalty of all the students who used the Nest. They were perfectly grand," Mrs. Katzenbarger commented.

Downing To Go Into Home Soon

Herbert C. Downing, coordinator of the Navy V-5 program at Bowling Green, and his family will move in the next few days into the home at 503 North Prospect Street.

V-12 Students Are Listed Alphabetically

This directory contains the room number, branch of service, college term, and home town of each V-12 student on the campus. With the room number, "K" means Kohl Hall; "W," Williams Hall, and "J," Johnston Hall (Hospital). "N" indicates Navy and "M" Marines. The figure after the "N" or "M" refers to the college term—"1" (freshman) for a high school graduate with no previous college work, "2" for a student with one year of previous college work, etc.)

Local Men Ranked At Top In V-12 Strength Test

John Phillips Finishes First; Sailors Surpass Marines

Strength tests taken by Navy V-12 students at the University indicated today that the physical fitness program here is superior to that of most colleges.

Though only about one-seventh of the nearly 400

V-12 students here are former Bowling Green men, four of the five best records in strength tests in July were made by those returning to the local campus.

John Phillips, president of Five Brothers fraternity, was tops in the test.

Jack Lewis of Garfield Heights, who had no previous college experience, was second. In third, fourth, and fifth places were Harley Hanna, John Violand, and Robert Babcock—all former Bowling Green men.

With the exception of Lewis, a marine, all five are sailors.

Scores for the 382 men who took the tests ranged from Phillips' 66.4 down to 25.4.

The median score of 46.9 compares favorably with that of other Ohio colleges.

Median for the men was 27 squat thrusts, 40.8 set-ups, 18.7 push-ups, 36.5 squat jumps, and 9 pull-ups.

"As is evident from a comparison with other naval units, our men are weak in the arms. Their work on push-ups and pull-ups is poor," Lt. (jg) A. K. Tapp, physical training administrator, asserted.

Bowling Green V-12 men will have another strength test the 16th and final week of this term.

Those ranking in the upper 70 per cent will be permitted to take intercollegiate sports or maintenance next term, but those in the lower 30 per cent will continue on the program in effect for all men this term.

The intercollegiate program will include daily participation in the chosen sport and swimming (three days a week for non-swimmers, one day for swimmers).

The maintenance program requires a similar amount of swimming and daily intramurals in each physical training class.

First eight weeks of the physical training program was primarily general conditioning. This week apparatus work is being stressed. For the remainder of the term there will be wrestling, boxing, judo, and combat games.

Cooke Article Is Published

Dr. Gilbert W. Cooke, associate professor of business administration, is the author of an article on "Savings Deposits in Mutual and Non-Mutual Banks" in the July issue of the Journal of Business.

How Do You Men Compare?

The average V-12 student at Bowling Green State University is 5 feet 9.8 inches tall, weighs 158.8 pounds, is 19.9 years old, measures 29.8 inches at the waist and 36 inches at the chest.

So discovered Lt. (jg) Aubry Tapp, physical training administrator, as a result of statistics gathered early in July and tabulated since then.

FACTS AND FIGURES ON FOOTBALL

COLLEGE TEAMS PLAY BEFORE AN AUDIENCE OF 18,000,000 PEOPLE ANNUALLY!

AN ARMY OF 21,000 PLAYERS MAKE UP 700 COLLEGE TEAMS!

UNCLE SAM COLLECTS AROUND $2,000,000 IN FOOTBALL TAXES!

Only 35 Still Ranked As Non-Swimmers

While every V-12 student at Bowling Green can swim, 35 still are classed as non-swimmers.

The naval program requires one to swim 50 yards to be ranked a third class swimmer. Otherwise he is a non-swimmer.

Until a student learns to swim the 50 yards—a round trip or two laps—he must take swimming three times a week. After he passes the test he is required to enter the pool only once a week.

Many students have swum 100 yards by using each of three strokes at least 25 yards and thus become second class swimmers.

Tests recently started for first class swimmers, who must do four things:

1. While in the water, approach a man of approximately your own size, demonstrate one "break or release," get him in a carry position, and tow him 25 yards.

2. Enter the water, feet first, and swim under water 25 yards. Break the surface for breathing twice under this distance, at intervals of about 25 feet.

3. Remove trousers in water and inflate for support.

4. Swim 220 yards.

The group of non-swimmers on the campus now is about half the 65 so classified when the V-12 program started in July.

At that time 21.2 per cent of the marines and 10.6 per cent of the sailors were unable to go 50 yards.

Alumnus Comes To Teach Math

Wayne F. Cornell, a 1926 graduate of Bowling Green, returned to his Alma Mater this week as a member of the mathematics faculty.

He succeeds Ralph Eikelberger of Scott City, Kan., who took a temporary appointment July 1 at the start of the Navy V-12 program on the campus. Mr. Eikelberger is being called into the armed forces.

Mr. Cornell has been superintendent of schools at Edon, Williams County, since 1930. Previous to that time he was high school principal at Edon and grade and high school teacher at Edgerton.

Nearly All 'V' Officers Find Houses

The housing problem has been solved by most of the seven naval officers stationed at the University.

Lt. Comdr. Jennings Courts, who heads the Naval Training Unit, and Mrs. Courts live at 478 South Church Street.

The executive officer, Lt. Russell J. Ferguson, has taken furnished the house at 123 Troupe Avenue formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scheid. Mrs. Ferguson will come to Bowling Green in the near future.

Lt. (jg) Floyd Siewert, in charge of the physical training program for the naval fliers, and his wife and 6-year-old daughter will move next week from 504½ South Main Street into the W. C. Jordan home at 128 Troupe.

Capt. Joseph Anastasio, who heads the marine detachment, and Lt. (jg) Aubry K. Tapp, V-12 physical training administrator, stay at 245 North Prospect Street.

Lt. Robert E. Jones, in charge of the fliers, lives in Williams Hall with his men.

Lt. ((jg) Seymour Kaiz, medical officer, and his family are temporarily in the Seven Sister house.

Petty Crew Numbers 12

The V-12 Naval Training Unit on the campus now has seven petty officers in the Navy and five in the Marine Detachment.

MRS. MAX BARKER

Gerry Bircher Will Teach

Gerry Bircher, 1941 homecoming queen at Bowling Green, was married Saturday evening in a church wedding in her home town of Louisville, near Canton, to Max Barker of Mogadore, O.

The couple will live in Hudson, O., where the bride, a 1943 graduate and beauty queen of Bowling Green, will teach English and history in the high school while her husband continues employment at the Goodyear Aircraft Corp. in Akron.

The bride's younger sister, Helen, who will enter Bowling Green this fall, was maid of honor. Attendants included four present or former Bowling Green students — Evelyn and Jane Smith, Evalyn McClelland, and Jane Rosendale.

Janet Gallup, who attended the local university, sang at the wedding.

Peggy Hiltz To Return

Peggy Hiltz of Norwalk will become graduate assistant in speech and director of campus radio programs when university classes are resumed September 15.

She will have the work handled last spring by Mrs. Frances Palmer, who went in June to California to visit her husband, Lt. Upton S. Palmer, who headed the university speech department here before he was commissioned to teach in the Army Air Forces.

Mrs. Palmer has decided not to return to Bowling Green this fall. She and her husband live at 1121 Glenneyre Street, Laguna Beach, Calif.

Miss Hiltz was graduated in June from Bowling Green.
